

ozello is a five-piece queercore band of punks from atlanta. with songs inspired by love, family, death, sexuality and aquatic animals, the group draws fans from all backgrounds and musical interests. their sound could be compared to that of Ghost Mice or Girls, and their use of trumpet and violin bring a folky twist that is both unique and eclectic.